SUNDAY 16 MAY 2021 - ASCENSION OF THE LORD

'Go, make disciples of all the nations'

On the Feast of the Ascension the Church celebrates the completion of Christ's earthly mission and His glorification with God the Father in heaven. Jesus commissioned His disciples to proclaim the Good News of salvation, not only to the people of Israel, but to all nations. The disciples would do so fortified and guided by the very Spirit of God, as promised by Jesus. The Ascension of Jesus into heaven was not the end of a story, but was the start of a new chapter of a story that is everlasting. We are the story-tellers of our time. As baptised Catholics, fortified by the Sacrament of Confirmation, it is our mission to live and communicate the Great Story of salvation, telling it well through our good example, drawing others to the joys of our faith by living the Good News of the Gospel in our actions and words.

Today is also World Communications Day 2021. It is fitting to celebrate it on the Feast of the Ascension, given that Jesus entrusted his disciples – and us, the disciples of today – with the important task of communicating the Good News to all nations.

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY 2021

On this 55th World Communications Day, Pope Francis has chosen the theme, "'Come and see' (John 1,46). Communicating, encountering people as and where they are". This theme recalls the Gospel account of the first disciples' initial encounters with Jesus, who invited them to "Come and see," to enter into relationship with Him.

"In communications, nothing can ever completely replace seeing things in person.....We do not communicate merely with words, but with our eyes, the tone of our voice and our gestures. Jesus' attractiveness to those who met Him depended on the truth of His preaching; yet the effectiveness of what He said was inseparable from how He looked at others, from how He acted towards them, and even from His silence. The disciples not only listened to His words; they watched Him speak. Indeed, in Him the Word took on a face; the invisible God let Himself be seen, heard and touched." Extract from Pope Francis's Message for World Communications Day.

The Pope's message concludes with a prayer:

Lord, teach us to move beyond ourselves, and to set out in search of truth.

Teach us to go out and see, teach us to listen, not to entertain prejudices or draw hasty conclusions.

Teach us to go where no one else will go, to take the time needed to understand, to pay attention to the essentials, not to be distracted by the superfluous, to distinguish deceptive appearances from the truth.

Grant us the grace to recognize your dwelling places in our world and the honesty needed to tell others what we have seen.
